Lord Jesus Christ, Teach Us to Dwell Under Your Covering and Rest in Your Peace

Prayer date: _____

Father God, I come to You in the mighty Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank You for another day. I thank You for another opportunity to pray. I thank You for another chance to draw near to You.

Lord, I thank You that You are not just a God I run to in trouble. You are the God I am called to dwell with daily. You are not only my help in crisis. You are my dwelling place, my covering, my refuge, and my peace.

Your Word declares:

Psalm 91:1-2

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

"I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in Him will I trust."

Father, teach me to dwell. Teach me not to visit the secret place only when I am afraid. Teach me not to come to You only when I need something. Teach me not to treat prayer like an emergency exit. Teach me to live under Your covering. Teach me to remain in Your presence. Teach me to abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Lord, I confess that too many times I carry things You never told me to carry. I carry worry. I carry pressure. I carry fear. I carry the weight of tomorrow. I carry burdens about my family, finances, health, work, children, future, and nation.

But Your Word says:

1 Peter 5:7

"Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you."

Father, today I cast my cares upon You. Not some of them. All of them. I cast the visible cares and the hidden cares. I cast the cares I talk about and the cares I keep quiet. I cast the old cares, the fresh cares, the heavy cares, and the cares I have gotten used to carrying.

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me to rest in You. Not laziness. Not denial. Not carelessness. But holy rest. Trusting rest. Obedient rest. Covered rest. Peace that comes from knowing You are Lord. Your Word declares:

Matthew 11:28-30

"Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

"Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls."

"For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

Lord Jesus Christ, I come to You. I come with my labor. I come with my heaviness. I come with my questions. I come with my pressure. I come with my family. I come with my finances. I come with my health. I come with my mind. I come with my soul.

Give me rest. Rest in my mind. Rest in my body. Rest in my emotions. Rest in my home. Rest in my decisions. Rest in my spirit.

Father, I ask You to quiet every storm inside of me. Some storms are outside, but some storms are in the heart. Some storms are in the thoughts. Some storms are in the imagination. Some storms are in the emotions. Some storms are in the home.

But I thank You that the Lord Jesus Christ still speaks to storms. Your Word says:

Mark 4:39

"And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still."

"And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm."

Lord Jesus Christ, speak peace over me. Speak peace over every troubled heart. Speak peace over every anxious mind. Speak peace over every restless home. Speak peace over every fearful decision. Speak peace over every weary servant. Speak peace over every family under pressure. Speak peace over every person who has been smiling publicly but struggling privately.

Peace, be still.

Father, I do not ask for peace because the world is peaceful. I ask for peace because Jesus Christ is Lord. I do not ask for peace because everything is easy. I ask for peace because You are faithful.

Your Word declares:

John 14:27

"Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you."

"Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Lord, give me Your peace. Not the world's peace. Not temporary peace. Not peace that depends on money, circumstances, people, reports, politics, markets, weather, or headlines. Give me the peace of Christ.

Let not my heart be troubled. Let not my heart be afraid. Let not my home be ruled by fear. Let not my decisions be driven by panic. Let not my mouth speak worry more than faith.

Father, I pray for every person who feels uncovered, exposed, vulnerable, tired, or uncertain. Remind them that You are still a refuge. You are still a fortress. You are still a shield. You are still a hiding place.

Your Word says:

Psalm 32:7

"Thou art my hiding place; Thou shalt preserve me from trouble; Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance."

Father, be my hiding place. Preserve me from trouble. Surround me with songs of deliverance. Let worship rise where worry has been sitting. Let praise rise where pressure has been speaking. Let Scripture rise where fear has been loud.

Lord, teach me the difference between hiding from life and hiding in You. I am not running from responsibility. I am running to my Refuge. I am not ignoring reality. I am standing under divine covering. I am not pretending storms do not exist. I am trusting the One who rules over the storm.

Father, cover my home today. Cover my children. Cover my elders. Cover my family. Cover marriages in my community. Cover single households in my community. Cover widows in my community. Cover the fatherless. Cover those who live alone. Cover those who are grieving. Cover those who are caregiving. Cover those who are trying to hold everything together.

Your Word declares:

Psalm 121:5-8

"The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand."

"The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night."

"The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: He shall preserve thy soul."

"The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore."

Father, keep me. Preserve me. Shade me. Guard my going out and my coming in. Preserve my soul. Preserve my peace. Preserve my family. Preserve my mind. Lord, cover me from evil. Cover me from deception. Cover me from fear. Cover me from confusion. Cover me from hidden traps. Cover me from distractions. Cover me from pride. Cover me from unnecessary battles.

Cover me from decisions made outside of Your will.

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me to stay under the covering of obedience. Teach me that peace is not only something I feel. Peace is also connected to trusting You, following You, and remaining in You.

Your Word says:

Isaiah 26:3

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee: because he trusteth in Thee."

Father, keep my mind stayed on You. Not stayed on fear. Not stayed on people. Not stayed on lack. Not stayed on what might happen. Not stayed on everything I cannot control. Keep my mind stayed on You.

I trust You. I trust Your Word. I trust Your timing. I trust Your hand. I trust Your covering. I trust Your provision. I trust Your protection. I trust Your peace.

Lord, where I have stepped out from under covering, bring me back. Where I have moved too fast, slow me down. Where I have acted from fear, correct me. Where I have leaned on my own understanding, teach me to acknowledge You again.

Your Word declares:

Proverbs 3:5-6

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding."

"In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."

Father, direct my paths. Direct my home. Direct my schedules. Direct my steps. Direct my conversations. Direct my finances. Direct my plans. Direct my church. Direct this prayer journey.

I ask You to lead me in peace. Lead me in wisdom. Lead me in truth. Lead me in rest. Lead me in obedience. Lead me under covering. Father, I declare today that I am not uncovered. I am not abandoned. I am not forgotten. I am not defeated. I am not a person without help. I belong to You. I am covered by the blood of Jesus Christ. I am kept by the power of God.

I am led by the Holy Spirit. I am anchored in the Word. I am hidden in Christ. I am under the shadow of the Almighty. I will dwell. I will trust. I will rest. I will not fear. In the mighty Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen. Father God, as I continue in prayer, I thank You that Your covering is not only for what happens around me, but also for what is happening within me.

Cover my heart. Cover my mind. Cover my emotions. Cover my thoughts. Cover the places in me that are tired, troubled, stretched, or uncertain.

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me how to rest in You when life still has responsibilities. Teach me how to be still in my soul even while I am still moving through my day. Teach me how to trust You when answers have not come yet, when pressure is still present, and when I do not know every step ahead.

Your Word declares:

Psalms 46:10

"Be still, and know that I am God..."

Father, teach me to be still. Not still because nothing is happening. Not still because everything is easy. Not still because I have figured everything out. But still because You are God. Still because You are faithful. Still because You are my refuge. Still because You are my covering. Still because You are Lord over what I understand and Lord over what I do not understand.

Lord, I confess that sometimes my body is sitting still, but my mind is running. Sometimes my mouth says I trust You, but my thoughts keep rehearsing fear. Sometimes I pray, but then I pick the burden back up again.

Father, help me release what I keep reclaiming. Help me surrender what I keep trying to control. Help me trust You with what I cannot fix, force, change, or carry. Your Word says:

Philippians 4:6-7

"Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God."

"And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

Father, keep my heart and minds through Christ Jesus. Let the peace of God stand guard over my thinking. Let the peace of God stand guard over my emotions. Let the peace of God stand guard over my home. Let the peace of God stand guard over every anxious place in me.

Lord, I bring You the things I cannot solve. I bring You the things I cannot explain. I bring You the things that keep circling in my mind. I bring You the things that have been stealing my sleep. I bring You the things that have been sitting heavy on my heart.

I bring You every burden, every question, every concern, every bill, every diagnosis, every family matter, every unresolved conversation, every decision, and every hidden weight.

Father, I make my requests known unto You. But I do not come in panic. I come with thanksgiving. Thank You for keeping me before. Thank You for making a way before. Thank You for covering me before. Thank You for healing before. Thank You for providing before. Thank You for protecting before. Thank You for giving peace before. And because You have been faithful before, I trust You right now.

Lord Jesus Christ, cover my mind from torment. Cover my thoughts from confusion. Cover my imagination from fear. Cover my sleep from disturbance. Cover my dreams from darkness. Cover my heart from despair.

Your Word declares:

2 Thessalonians 3:3

"But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil."

Father, establish me and keep me from evil. Establish my mind in truth. Establish my heart in peace. Establish my home in prayer. Establish my faith in Christ. Establish my steps in obedience.

Keep me from evil. Keep me from deception. Keep me from fear. Keep me from emotional decisions. Keep me from unnecessary conflict. Keep me from words I cannot take back. Keep me from agreements that are not from You. Keep me from doors You did not open. Keep me from burdens You never assigned to me.

Lord, I ask You to bring my inner life under Your covering. Let there be nothing in me that is left exposed to fear. Let there be nothing in me that remains uncovered by truth. Let there be nothing in me that continues to live outside of surrender.

Cover the wounded places. Cover the disappointed places. Cover the grieving places. Cover the lonely places. Cover the anxious places. Cover the angry places. Cover the places that are tired of waiting. Cover the places that are trying to believe again.

Father, some people are strong for everybody else, but they need Your strength. Some people are the encouragers, but they need encouragement. Some people are praying for others, but they are carrying private burdens of their own.

Meet them today. Strengthen them today. Comfort them today. Quiet their hearts today. Remind them they are not alone. Your Word says:

Psalm 34:18

"The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit."

Father, draw near to the brokenhearted. Draw near to those who are grieving. Draw near to those who are weary. Draw near to those who feel overlooked. Draw near to those who have been faithful but tired. Draw near to those who are trying to keep going.

Let them feel the nearness of God. Let them know the comfort of the Holy Spirit. Let them rest under Your shadow. Let them breathe again.

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me not to confuse peace with the absence of warfare. Teach me that peace can rule even while battles are present. Teach me that peace can stand even when circumstances are not finished changing.

Your Word declares:

Colossians 3:15

"And let the peace of God rule in your hearts..."

Father, let Your peace rule. Let peace rule over fear. Let peace rule over anxiety. Let peace rule over pressure. Let peace rule over frustration. Let peace rule over my reactions. Let peace rule over my conversations. Let peace rule over my home. Let peace rule over my decisions. I do not want fear to rule. I do not want worry to rule. I do not want anger to rule.

I do not want offense to rule. I do not want pressure to rule. I want the peace of God to rule in my heart.

Father, I pray for emotional steadiness. I pray for spiritual balance. I pray for a calm confidence that comes from trusting You. I pray for the kind of rest that cannot be explained by circumstances.

Give me peace that passes understanding. Give me peace that interrupts panic. Give me peace that settles the soul. Give me peace that guards the mind. Give me peace that quiets the home. Give me peace that strengthens obedience. Give me peace that helps me hear You clearly. Lord, where there has been noise, bring stillness. Where there has been heaviness, bring relief.

Where there has been fear, bring faith. Where there has been confusion, bring clarity. Where there has been striving, bring surrender. Where there has been weariness, bring renewal. Where there has been panic, bring peace.

Father, teach me how to rest without quitting. Teach me how to pause without giving up. Teach me how to trust without being passive. Teach me how to surrender without becoming careless.

I still have work to do. I still have families to love. I still have assignments to complete. I still have prayers to pray. I still have steps to take. But I do not have to do any of it outside of Your peace. Your Word says:

Exodus 33:14

"And He said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest."

Father, let Your presence go with me. Into my home. Into my work. Into my church. Into my decisions. Into my conversations. Into my responsibilities. Into the rest of this day. Into the rest of this prayer journey.

Let Your presence go with me, and give me rest.

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me to dwell under Your covering and rest in Your peace. Let peace not be a moment I visit, but a place I learn to live. Let Your covering not be something I mention, but something I remain under.

I declare today: My heart is covered. My mind is covered. My home is covered. My family is covered. My steps are covered. My decisions are covered. My sleep is covered. My future is covered. I cast my cares upon the Lord. I receive the peace of Christ. I dwell under the shadow of the Almighty. I will not be ruled by fear. I will not be driven by panic.

I will not be uncovered in my soul. I will rest in the Lord. In the mighty Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

Father God, now that I have prayed for Your covering over my heart, mind, emotions, home, and inner life, I ask You to let that same peace move through me into every place You have assigned me to stand.

Let the peace of Christ not stop with me. Let it move through my family. Let it move through my church. Let it move through my community. Let it move through my workplaces. Let it move through my conversations. Let it move through my decisions. Let me become a person who carries peace because I dwell under Your covering.

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me to be steady in unstable places. Teach me to be calm in anxious environments. Teach me to be prayerful when others are panicking. Teach me to be wise when confusion is spreading. Teach me to be faithful when pressure is rising.

Your Word declares:

Matthew 5:9

"Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

Father, make me peacemakers. Not people who avoid truth. Not people who ignore problems. Not people who compromise righteousness. But people who carry the peace of God with truth, humility, wisdom, and love.

Lord, let me not bring confusion into my home. Let me not bring strife into my family. Let me not bring unnecessary heaviness into my church. Let me not bring fear into conversations. Let me not stir up what You are trying to settle.

Help me speak with wisdom. Help me listen with patience. Help me respond with grace. Help me lead with humility. Help me correct with love. Help me stand with truth.

Father, I pray for my family. Let my home become places of covering and peace. Let every household represented on this prayer journey come under the shadow of the Almighty.

Where there has been arguing, bring peace. Where there has been tension, bring understanding. Where there has been silence, bring healthy communication. Where there has been fear, bring faith. Where there has been confusion, bring order. Where there has been distance, bring healing. Where there has been heaviness, bring joy. Where there has been spiritual dryness, bring fresh prayer.

Your Word says:

Joshua 24:15

"...but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

Father, let my households serve the Lord. Let my home not be ruled by the spirit of this age. Let my home not be ruled by fear, division, disrespect, rebellion, bitterness, or unbelief.

Let Jesus Christ be honored in my home. Let prayer be welcomed in my home. Let Scripture be spoken in my home. Let love be practiced in my home. Let forgiveness be extended in my home. Let peace have authority in my home.

Lord, I pray for marriages. Cover husbands and wives. Teach them to dwell under Your covering together. Teach them to speak with care, listen with humility, forgive with sincerity, and serve one another in love.

I pray for single households. Cover them with Your presence. Let them not feel forgotten, isolated, or uncovered. Let their homes be full of peace, purpose, prayer, wisdom, and strength.

I pray for widows, widowers, the fatherless, caregivers, elders, and those living alone. Cover them. Visit them with comfort. Send support where support is needed. Send provision where provision is needed. Send encouragement where encouragement is needed.

Father, I pray for my children, grandchildren, young adults, students, and future generations. Cover their minds. Cover their identity. Cover their friendships. Cover their decisions. Cover their bodies. Cover their hearts. Cover their purpose.

Do not let the world shape them more than Your Word forms them. Do not let confusion speak louder than truth. Do not let fear silence their faith. Do not let pressure pull them out from under Your covering. Your Word declares:

Isaiah 54:13

"And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children."

Father, teach my children. Let great peace be upon my children. Let them know the voice of the Lord. Let them recognize truth. Let them reject darkness. Let them love righteousness. Let them walk in wisdom.

Lord, I pray for my church. Let the Church dwell under Your covering. Let the Church rest in the peace of Christ. Let the Church not be driven by fear, performance, division, politics, popularity, or pressure.

Let the Church return to prayer. Let the Church return to the Word. Let the Church return to worship. Let the Church return to holiness. Let the Church return to love. Let the Church return to the fear of the Lord. Let the Church return to Jesus Christ. Your Word says:

Isaiah 56:7

"...for Mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people."

Father, make Your house a house of prayer. Not a house of performance. Not a house of confusion. Not a house of entertainment only. Not a house of man's agenda. Let Your house be a house of prayer.

I pray for pastors, ministers, elders, deacons, teachers, evangelists, intercessors, worship leaders, and every servant in the Body of Christ. Cover them under the blood of Jesus Christ. Strengthen them in the inner man. Give them peace in the middle of responsibility.

Keep them from burnout. Keep them from pride. Keep them from compromise. Keep them from fear of man. Keep them from hidden sin. Keep them from discouragement. Keep them from carrying burdens You never assigned to them.

Lord, give leaders the peace to obey You without being controlled by people. Give them the courage to preach truth. Give them the humility to repent. Give them the wisdom to lead. Give them the compassion to care. Give them the endurance to continue.

Your Word declares:

Hebrews 13:20-21

"Now the God of peace... Make you perfect in every good work to do His will..."

Father, You are the God of peace. Make me perfect in every good work to do Your will. Work in me that which is wellpleasing in Your sight, through Jesus Christ.

Lord, I pray for my workplaces, businesses, schools, neighborhoods, and communities. Let Your people carry peace into places where there is pressure. Let me not be a person who adds to the chaos. Let me be a person who brings wisdom, prayer, integrity, calm, excellence, and truth.

Let me carry peace into meetings. Let me carry peace into classrooms. Let me carry peace into offices. Let me carry peace into businesses. Let me carry peace into neighborhoods. Let me carry peace into difficult conversations. Let me carry peace into places where people are tired, afraid, angry, divided, or confused.

Father, let me represent the Lord Jesus Christ well. Let people experience something different when they encounter Your people. Let them see patience where there could have been irritation. Let them see restraint where there could have been reaction. Let them see wisdom where there could have been foolishness. Let them see love where there could have been harshness.

Your Word says:

Romans 12:18

"If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men."

Father, help me live peaceably as much as lieth in me. Help me do my part. Help me not feed unnecessary conflict. Help me not return evil for evil. Help me not allow offense to lead me. Help me not confuse peace with weakness or truth with cruelty.

Make me strong enough to be peaceful. Make me humble enough to listen. Make me wise enough to know when to speak. Make me disciplined enough to know when to be silent. Make me faithful enough to stand for righteousness.

Lord, I pray for my cities and communities. Cover my streets. Cover my neighborhoods. Cover my schools. Cover my church. Cover my senior centers. Cover my community spaces. Cover my family. Cover those who serve, protect, teach, care, feed, lead, and help.

Let Your peace interrupt violence. Let Your peace interrupt confusion. Let Your peace interrupt despair. Let Your peace interrupt division. Let Your peace interrupt hopelessness. Let Your peace interrupt fear.

Father, I ask for protection over the vulnerable. Protect children. Protect elders. Protect widows. Protect the fatherless. Protect those without stable housing. Protect those battling mental heaviness. Protect those under financial pressure. Protect those who feel forgotten.

Let Your people become carriers of help, not just carriers of words. Show me where to serve. Show me where to pray. Show me where to give. Show me where to listen. Show me where to stand. Show me where to be present. Your Word declares:

Micah 6:8

"He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

Father, teach me to do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with You. Let my peace be active. Let my faith have feet. Let my prayers become obedience. Let my covering make me compassionate, not careless.

Lord Jesus Christ, You are the Prince of Peace. Rule in my heart. Rule in my home. Rule in my church. Rule in my community. Rule in my decisions. Rule in how I treat people. Rule in how I respond to pressure.

Your Word says:

Isaiah 9:6

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given... and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

Lord Jesus Christ, Prince of Peace, reign over me. Reign over my thoughts. Reign over my emotions. Reign over my family. Reign over my church. Reign over my conversations. Reign over my cities. Reign over my nation.

Father, I do not want peace that only comforts me. I want peace that also commissions me. I want peace that sends me into the world steady, loving, truthful, humble, and bold.

Send me as a covered person. Send me as a peaceful person. Send me as a prayerful person. Send me as a truthful person. Send me as a Spirit-led person. Send me as someone who knows where my help comes from. I declare today: My home will know the peace of God. My family will come under the covering of God. My church will return to prayer and truth.

My community will encounter the love of Christ. My workplaces will see integrity and wisdom. My children will be taught of the Lord. My cities need the peace of God. The Lord is my Keeper.

The Lord is my Refuge. The Lord is my Covering. The Lord Jesus Christ is my Peace. I will dwell under His covering. I will rest in His peace. And I will carry that peace wherever He sends me.

In the mighty Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

Father God, I have prayed for Your covering over my heart, my mind, my home, my family, my church, my community, my workplaces, and my cities. Now I ask You to seal this second day of this prayer journey with Your peace, Your presence, Your protection, Your wisdom, and Your covering.

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me not only to pray about peace, but to live in peace. Teach me not only to speak about covering, but to dwell under covering. Teach me not only to ask for rest, but to receive the rest that comes from trusting You.

Father, let every word that has been prayed today take root in me. Let it not fall to the ground. Let it not be forgotten after the call ends. Let it become part of how I think, how I speak, how I rest, how I respond, and how I walk through the days ahead.

Your Word declares:

Isaiah 32:17

"And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever."

Father, let the work of righteousness produce peace in me. Let the effect of righteousness produce quietness and assurance. Not loud fear. Not restless striving. Not constant worry. But quietness and assurance because my life is anchored in You.

Lord, quiet what needs to be quieted. Settle what needs to be settled. Cover what needs to be covered. Heal what needs to be healed. Strengthen what needs to be strengthened. Correct what needs to be corrected. Restore what needs to be restored.

Father, I ask You to seal my mind in peace. Let my thoughts not run wild. Let fear not build stories that You did not write. Let anxiety not become the voice I obey. Let worry not become the place where I live.

Your Word says:

Romans 8:6

"For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

Father, make me spiritually minded. Let life and peace fill my thinking. Let the Holy Spirit guide my thoughts. Let the Word of God renew my mind. Let the peace of Christ rule in my heart.

Lord Jesus Christ, cover my home. Let my home be places where Your presence is welcomed and Your peace is honored. Let my home not be ruled by confusion, strife, heaviness, fear, or disorder.

Let peace enter every room. Let peace settle every conversation. Let peace guard every relationship. Let peace cover every child. Let peace comfort every elder. Let peace strengthen every caregiver. Let peace surround every person living alone. Let peace rest upon every family connected to this prayer journey. Your Word declares:

Numbers 6:24-26

"The Lord bless thee, and keep thee:"

"The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:"

"The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace."

Father, bless me and keep me. Make Your face shine upon me. Be gracious unto me. Lift up Your countenance upon me and give me peace. Give peace to the weary. Give peace to the waiting. Give peace to the grieving. Give peace to the uncertain. Give peace to the faithful servant. Give peace to the household under pressure. Give peace to the one who is doing their best to keep standing.

Lord, I thank You that Your covering is not weak. Your peace is not small. Your presence is not far away. You are near. You are faithful. You are my refuge and my fortress.

Father, I ask You to preserve Your people. Preserve me from evil. Preserve me from panic. Preserve me from emotional decisions. Preserve me from confusion. Preserve me from unnecessary warfare. Preserve me from stepping outside of Your will.

Your Word says:

Psalms 4:8

"I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for Thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety."

Father, let Your people sleep in peace. Let rest return. Let peaceful sleep return. Let the night season be covered. Let minds be quieted. Let bodies be restored. Let hearts be comforted.

I rebuke torment in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. I rebuke fear in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. I rebuke unrest in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. I rebuke confusion in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. I speak peace over the people of God. I speak peace over homes. I speak peace over families. I speak peace over minds. I speak peace over the rest of this prayer journey.

Lord, I ask You to cover the remaining days of this prayer journey. Go before every leader. Go before every reader. Go before every listener. Go before every prayer. Go before every scripture. Go before every household that will connect with this assignment.

Let these ten days continue to build. Let Day One's awakening remain. Let Day Two's covering settle. Let truth and peace work together in me. Let fire and rest work together in me. Let courage and humility work together in me. Let discernment and love work together in me. Let obedience and peace work together in me.

Father, do not let me become a person who is stirred but not changed. Do not let me be moved in the moment and unchanged in my walk. Make this prayer journey fruitful. Make it lasting. Make it holy. Make it pleasing in Your sight.

Your Word declares:

2 Thessalonians 3:16

"Now the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all."

Lord of peace, give me peace always by all means. Peace in the morning. Peace in the evening. Peace in the waiting. Peace in the working. Peace in the serving. Peace in the decision. Peace in the transition. Peace in the storm. Peace in the unknown. Peace under Your covering.

Father, I declare that the Lord is with me. The Lord is keeping me. The Lord is covering me. The Lord is leading me. The Lord is preserving me. The Lord is giving me peace.

I will not rush out from under Your covering. I will not trade peace for panic. I will not trade trust for fear. I will not trade obedience for pressure. I will not trade Your presence for my own understanding. I will dwell. I will abide. I will rest. I will trust. Lord Jesus Christ, You are my peace. You are my covering. You are my refuge. You are my Shepherd. You are my Keeper. You are my hiding place. You are my Lord.

Seal this prayer in every heart. Seal this Word in every home. Seal this peace in every mind. Seal this covering over every family. Seal this assignment in the will of God.

Father, thank You for Day Two. Thank You for teaching me to dwell under Your covering and rest in Your peace. Thank You for reminding me that I am not uncovered, forgotten, abandoned, or alone. Thank You that I can rest because You are Lord.

Now seal this prayer in the mighty, holy, peaceful, powerful, righteous, and matchless Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. Amen. And Amen.

Keep the prayers reaching people.
