Lord Jesus Christ, Keep Our Love Hot When Wickedness Abounds

Prayer date: _____

Father God, I come to You in the mighty Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank You for another day. I thank You for another opportunity to pray. I thank You for Your mercy. I thank You for Your Word. I thank You for the Holy Spirit. I thank You for keeping me, covering me, teaching me, correcting me, and calling me deeper.

Lord, I come humbly before You today. I do not want a cold heart. I do not want a hard heart. I do not want a bitter heart. I do not want a careless heart. I do not want a heart that still looks religious but no longer burns with love for You.

Your Word declares:

Matthew 24:12-13

"And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold."

"But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved."

Father, keep my love from waxing cold. When iniquity abounds, keep my love hot. When wickedness increases, keep my love pure. When deception spreads, keep my love rooted in truth. When pressure rises, keep my love steady. When people offend me, keep my love clean. When the world grows darker, keep my love burning for the Lord Jesus Christ.

Lord, I do not want to be counted among the many whose love grows cold. I ask You to examine me. Search my heart. Show me where love has cooled. Show me where compassion has weakened. Show me where offense has settled. Show me where disappointment has hardened me. Show me where fear has made me withdraw. Show me where pride has made me less tender.

Your Word says:

Psalms 139:23-24

"Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:"

"And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

Father, search me. Know my heart. Try me. Know my thoughts. See what is in me that does not look like You. See what is in me that does not sound like You. See what is in me that does not reflect the heart of Jesus Christ.

Lead me in the way everlasting.

Lord Jesus Christ, I confess that it is easy to grow cold when I keep seeing wickedness, injustice, deception, cruelty, confusion, pride, violence, dishonor, rebellion, and spiritual compromise. It is easy to become numb. It is easy to become angry. It is easy to become suspicious. It is easy to stop caring. It is easy to protect myself by hardening my heart.

But Lord, I ask You to keep me tender without making me foolish. Keep me loving without making me naïve. Keep me discerning without making me suspicious. Keep me bold without making me harsh. Keep me holy without making me proud. Keep me watchful without making me fearful. Keep me separated unto You without making me cold toward people. Your Word declares:

Romans 12:9

"Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good."

Father, teach me love without dissimulation. Love without hypocrisy. Love without pretending. Love without manipulation. Love without compromise. Love that is real, holy, truthful, and clean.

Teach me to abhor what is evil and cleave to what is good. Do not let love become compromise. Do not let holiness become cruelty. Do not let discernment become pride. Do not let truth become harshness. Do not let compassion become agreement with sin.

Lord, give me the love of Christ. Love that tells the truth. Love that forgives. Love that endures. Love that serves. Love that corrects with humility. Love that covers without hiding sin. Love that gives without boasting. Love that prays for enemies. Love that does not rejoice in iniquity. Love that rejoices in the truth. Your Word says:

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

"Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,"

"Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;"

"Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;"

"Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things."

Father, teach me this kind of love. Long-suffering love. Kind love. Humble love. Unselfish love. Love that is not easily provoked. Love that does not keep a record of evil. Love that does not rejoice in iniquity. Love that rejoices in truth. Love that bears, believes, hopes, and endures. Lord, where my love has become impatient, make it patient again.

Where my love has become sharp, make it kind again. Where my love has become prideful, make it humble again. Where my love has become selfish, make it serving again. Where my love has become easily provoked, make it steady again. Where my love has become suspicious, make it pure again. Where my love has become weary, strengthen it again.

Lord Jesus Christ, I ask You to baptize my heart again in holy love. Not emotional love only. Not sentimental love only. Not performative love. Not selective love. Not love that loves only when it is easy. Give me love that comes from abiding in You.

Your Word declares:

John 15:9-10

"As the Father hath loved Me, so have I loved you: continue ye in My love."

"If ye keep My commandments, ye shall abide in My love..."

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me to continue in Your love. Teach me to abide in Your love. Teach me that love and obedience belong together. Teach me that love is not separated from Your commandments. Teach me that staying in love means staying in You.

Father, help me not confuse love with approval of everything. Help me not confuse love with silence. Help me not confuse love with fear of confrontation. Help me not confuse love with allowing darkness to go unchallenged.

But also help me not confuse truth with meanness. Help me not confuse boldness with bitterness. Help me not confuse correction with condemnation. Help me not confuse discernment with despising people.

Lord, keep me balanced in Christ. Keep me rooted in truth and burning in love. Keep me sober and compassionate. Keep me watchful and tender. Keep me firm and gentle. Keep me holy and humble. Father, I pray that the love of God would be shed abroad in my heart by the Holy Ghost. Your Word says:

Romans 5:5

"...the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us."

Holy Spirit, shed the love of God abroad in my heart. Fill places that have dried up. Fill places that have grown cold. Fill places that have been wounded. Fill places that have been disappointed. Fill places that have been guarded. Fill places that have been exhausted.

Let the love of God flow again. Let compassion flow again. Let mercy flow again. Let forgiveness flow again. Let prayer flow again. Let tears flow again where my heart has become numb. Let worship flow again where my heart has become heavy. Let fire flow again where my heart has become cold.

Lord Jesus Christ, I pray for endurance. You said that he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. So Father, help me endure in love. Help me endure in truth. Help me endure in holiness. Help me endure in prayer. Help me endure in obedience. Help me endure in faith.

Do not let my love burn hot for a moment and then fade away. Do not let me start strong and finish cold. Do not let me be passionate in public and empty in private. Do not let me serve while secretly becoming hard. Do not let me pray while secretly becoming bitter. Do not let me preach truth while losing compassion. Do not let me speak about love while refusing to walk in it.

Your Word declares:

Galatians 6:9

"And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

Father, keep me from fainting. Keep me from weariness that turns into coldness. Keep me from disappointment that turns into distance. Keep me from delayed harvest that turns into unbelief.

Keep me from serving so long that I forget to abide.

Strengthen me in well doing. Strengthen me in loving well. Strengthen me in forgiving well. Strengthen me in speaking truth well. Strengthen me in serving well. Strengthen me in enduring well.

Lord, I pray for every person who has been hurt by people, disappointed by people, betrayed by people, ignored by people, misunderstood by people, or mistreated by people. Do not let pain freeze their love. Do not let betrayal harden their heart. Do not let disappointment steal their tenderness. Do not let offense become a prison.

Your Word says:

Ephesians 4:31-32

"Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:"

"And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Father, remove bitterness. Remove wrath. Remove anger. Remove clamour. Remove evil speaking. Remove malice. Make me kind. Make me tenderhearted. Make me forgiving.

Lord Jesus Christ, remind me how much You have forgiven me. Remind me how patient You have been with me. Remind me how merciful You have been toward me. Remind me how You loved me when I did not deserve it.

Let forgiven people become forgiving people. Let loved people become loving people. Let restored people become restoring people. Let delivered people become compassionate people.

Father, keep my love hot in my home. Keep my love hot in my family. Keep my love hot in my church. Keep my love hot in my community. Keep my love hot toward the lost. Keep my love hot toward the weary. Keep my love hot toward those who are difficult. Keep my love hot toward those who are different. Keep my love hot toward those who need truth and grace.

Lord Jesus Christ, I do not want the fire of love to go out. I do not want my heart to become cold while my mouth still say the right things. I do not want my hands to serve while my heart is far from You. I do not want to become religious and loveless. I do not want to become correct but cold. I do not want to become informed but unkind. I do not want to become watchful but hard.

Father, keep me close to You. Keep me near Your heart. Keep me filled with Your Spirit. Keep me rooted in Your Word. Keep me covered by Your blood. Keep me burning with holy love. Your Word declares:

Jude 1:21

"Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life."

Father, teach me to keep myself in the love of God. Teach me to remain there. Teach me to return there. Teach me to live there. Teach me to look for the mercy of my Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

Today I declare: My love will not wax cold. My heart will not harden. My compassion will not die. My forgiveness will not be stolen. My obedience will not weaken. My truth will not lose love. My love will not lose truth. My fire will not go out. I will abide in the love of Christ. I will endure unto the end. I will love because He first loved me.

Lord Jesus Christ, keep my love hot when wickedness abounds. In the mighty Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

Father God, as I continue in prayer, I ask You to bring this Word deeper into my own heart. I have prayed for You to keep my love hot when wickedness abounds. Now I ask You to show me every place where love has already tried to cool inside of me.

Lord Jesus Christ, search me in the hidden places. Search my heart. Search my thoughts. Search my motives. Search my memories. Search my reactions. Search my words. Search my silence. Search the places where I still smile, but my love has grown tired. Search the places where I still serve, but my compassion has weakened. Search the places where I still pray, but my tenderness has become guarded.

Search the places where I still know the truth, but my heart is not burning like it used to burn. Your Word declares:

Lamentations 3:40

"Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

Father, help me search and try my ways. Help me not blame the times without examining my own heart. Help me not only talk about wickedness in the world while ignoring coldness within myself.

Lord, turn me again to You. Turn my heart again. Turn my love again. Turn my compassion again. Turn my tenderness again. Turn my mercy again. Turn my obedience again. Turn my fire again. Lord Jesus Christ, I confess that coldness can come quietly. It does not always arrive all at once. Sometimes love cools little by little. A disappointment here.

A betrayal there. A delayed answer. A painful conversation. A repeated burden. A wound that was never healed. A prayer that seemed unanswered. A person who kept hurting me. A season that wore me down. A pressure that never seemed to lift.

Father, show me where I have adjusted to coldness and called it wisdom. Show me where I have called guardedness discernment. Show me where I have called numbness maturity. Show me where I have called bitterness truth. Show me where I have called withdrawal peace.

Your Word says:

Proverbs 4:23

"Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

Father, help me keep my heart with all diligence. Not casually. Not occasionally. Not only when I feel emotional. Help me keep my heart carefully, prayerfully, honestly, and humbly before You.

Guard my heart from bitterness. Guard my heart from offense. Guard my heart from resentment. Guard my heart from cynicism. Guard my heart from numbness. Guard my heart from pride. Guard my heart from unbelief. Guard my heart from compassion fatigue. Guard my heart from spiritual exhaustion. Lord, where offense has entered, remove it. Where bitterness has taken root, pull it up.

Where resentment has settled, cleanse it. Where disappointment has hardened me, soften me. Where fear has closed me off, open me again. Where grief has made me numb, comfort me. Where weariness has made me sharp, restore me. Where injustice has made me angry, give me righteous wisdom without hatred. Father, Your Word warns me:

Hebrews 12:15

"Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;"

Lord, do not let any root of bitterness spring up in me. Do not let bitterness trouble me. Do not let bitterness defile my home, my relationships, my service, my leadership, my prayers, or my witness.

Pull up the root. Not just the leaves. Not just the words. Not just the behaviors. Not just the reactions. Pull up the root. Pull up the old wound. Pull up the hidden offense. Pull up the quiet resentment. Pull up the private anger. Pull up the pain I have carried so long that I started calling it normal. Father, I bring You the people who hurt me.

I bring You the people who disappointed me. I bring You the people who betrayed me. I bring You the people who ignored me. I bring You the people who misunderstood me. I bring You the people who used me. I bring You the people who rejected me. I bring You the people who spoke against me. I bring You the people who did not apologize. I bring You the situations that still sting when I remember them.

Lord Jesus Christ, I do not bring them to You so I can rehearse the hurt. I bring them to You so I can be healed. I bring them to You so I can be free. I bring them to You so my love does not wax cold.

Your Word declares:

Matthew 5:44

"But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you..."

"...and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;"

Lord, this is not easy in the flesh. This is not natural to my old nature. This requires the Spirit of God. So I ask You to help me love my enemies. Help me bless those who curse me. Help me pray for those who have despitefully used me.

Not because what they did was right. Not because pain does not matter. Not because truth should be ignored. Not because boundaries are wrong. But because I belong to Jesus Christ, and I refuse to let wickedness make my love cold. Father, teach me forgiveness that is holy and wise. Forgiveness that releases revenge. Forgiveness that refuses bitterness.

Forgiveness that trusts You with justice. Forgiveness that does not require me to stay in harm's way. Forgiveness that keeps my heart free. Forgiveness that keeps my love alive.

Lord, I ask You to heal the wounded places where love has been replaced by self-protection. I know there is wisdom in boundaries, but I also know there is danger in a locked heart.

Teach me the difference. Teach me how to have boundaries without bitterness. Teach me how to have discernment without suspicion. Teach me how to have caution without coldness. Teach me how to have wisdom without withdrawal from love. Teach me how to be sober without being hard. Teach me how to be watchful without being fearful. Teach me how to be protected without being loveless.

Your Word says:

Ezekiel 36:26

"A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you..."

"...and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh."

Father, take away the stony heart. Take away the hardened heart. Take away the cold heart. Take away the guarded heart that refuses to feel. Take away the proud heart that refuses correction. Take away the wounded heart that refuses to trust You. Give me a heart of flesh. A heart that can love. A heart that can forgive. A heart that can feel compassion.

A heart that can repent. A heart that can obey. A heart that can be moved by the Holy Spirit. A heart that can burn again.

Lord Jesus Christ, where I have become numb, awaken me. Where I have become indifferent, revive me. Where I have become weary in love, strengthen me. Where I have become selective in compassion, correct me.

Your Word declares:

"We love Him, because He first loved us."

Father, bring me back to first love. Bring me back to the love You showed me first. Before I loved You, You loved me. Before I knew how to obey, You drew me. Before I had it all together, You had mercy on me.

Remind me of the cross. Remind me of the blood. Remind me of grace. Remind me of mercy. Remind me of forgiveness. Remind me of how patiently You loved me. Remind me of how kindly You corrected me. Remind me of how faithfully You kept me.

Lord Jesus Christ, let my love be born again from Your love. Let me not try to love people from an empty place. Let me not try to serve from a bitter place. Let me not try to forgive from human strength alone.

Fill me again. Your Word says:

1 John 4:7-8

"Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God."

"He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."

Father, help me love others because love is of God. Let my love prove that I know You. Let my love reveal that I have been with You. Let my love be holy, truthful, enduring, and real.

Lord, examine how I love the people closest to me. Examine how I love my family. Examine how I love my friends. Examine how I love my church family. Examine how I love people who disagree with me. Examine how I love people who disappoint me. Examine how I love people who are difficult. Examine how I love people who cannot give anything back.

Examine how I love people who are not like me.

Father, do not let my love only be easy love. Do not let my love only be public love. Do not let my love only be convenient love. Do not let my love only be love for those who affirm me.

Give me Christlike love. Give me crucified love. Give me enduring love. Give me truthful love. Give me merciful love. Give me holy love. Lord, I repent for coldness that I have justified. I repent for unforgiveness that I have protected. I repent for bitterness that I have explained away. I repent for harshness that I called truth. I repent for cruelty that I called boldness.

I repent for pride that I called discernment. I repent for indifference that I called peace. I repent for withholding love as punishment. I repent for speaking truth without love. I repent for showing love without truth. Father, wash me. Cleanse me. Correct me. Heal me. Restore me. Set me on fire again. Your Word declares:

Revelation 2:4-5

"Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love."

"Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works..."

Father, where I have left my first love, call me back. Help me remember. Help me repent. Help me return. Help me do the first works again. Return me to prayer. Return me to worship. Return me to tenderness. Return me to obedience. Return me to compassion. Return me to humility. Return me to the fear of the Lord. Return me to love that burns because it abides in Christ.

Lord Jesus Christ, I ask You to restore holy affection in me. Restore love for You. Restore love for Your Word. Restore love for prayer. Restore love for righteousness. Restore love for the lost. Restore love for the wounded. Restore love for the Body of Christ. Restore love for the people You have assigned me to serve.

Father, keep me from compassion fatigue. Sometimes I see so much need, so much pain, so much wickedness, so much confusion, so much grief, and so much pressure that my heart want to shut down.

But Lord, do not let my heart shut down. Teach me how to rest without going cold. Teach me how to recover without withdrawing love. Teach me how to set boundaries without losing compassion. Teach me how to pour out and be refilled. Teach me how to serve from overflow and not from emptiness. Your Word says:

2 Thessalonians 3:5

"And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ."

Father, direct my heart into the love of God. Not into fear. Not into bitterness. Not into pride. Not into numbness. Not into emotional exhaustion. Direct my heart into the love of God and into the patient waiting for Christ.

Direct my heart daily. Direct my heart when I am tired. Direct my heart when people are difficult. Direct my heart when the news is heavy. Direct my heart when wickedness is increasing. Direct my heart when my patience is being tested. Direct my heart when I am tempted to stop caring.

Lord Jesus Christ, keep my love hot in the secret place first. Before anyone sees me serve, keep me burning before You. Before anyone hears me speak, keep me burning before You. Before anyone receives from me, keep me burning before You.

Let my love not be performance. Let my love not be image. Let my love not be habit. Let my love not be obligation only. Let my love be real. Let my love be alive. Let my love be fed by Your presence. Let my love be strengthened by Your Word. Let my love be sustained by the Holy Spirit. Father, today I bring You my heart again. Every wounded place.

Every tired place. Every numb place. Every bitter place. Every offended place. Every disappointed place. Every guarded place. Every cold place. Every place where love has tried to die. Breathe on me again. Heal me again. Warm me again. Tenderize me again. Revive me again. Set me ablaze again. I declare today: My heart will not stay cold. My love will not be ruled by offense.

My compassion will not be buried under disappointment. My forgiveness will not be blocked by pride. My tenderness will not be stolen by wickedness. My boundaries will not become bitterness. My discernment will not become suspicion. My truth will not become cruelty. My love will not become compromise. I will return to first love. I will keep myself in the love of God.

I will let the Holy Spirit shed the love of God abroad in my heart. I will forgive as God for Christ's sake has forgiven me. I will endure in love. I will burn again. Lord Jesus Christ, keep my love hot when wickedness abounds. In the mighty Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I pray. Amen.

Father God, now that I have prayed for You to search my heart, heal offense, remove bitterness, restore tenderness, and keep my love burning in the hidden places, I ask You to let that same holy love move through me into every place You have assigned me to stand.

Lord Jesus Christ, do not let my love stop with emotion. Let my love become obedience. Let my love become service. Let my love become forgiveness. Let my love become patience. Let my love become truth. Let my love become mercy. Let my love become prayer. Let my love become action.

Father, let the love You restore in me flow through me to my home, my family, my church, my community, the lost, the wounded, the weary, and even those who have been difficult to love.

Your Word declares:

John 13:34-35

"A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another."

"By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another."

Lord Jesus Christ, teach me to love as You have loved me. Let my love be evidence that I belong to You. Let people not only hear me say I am Your disciple, but let them see the love of Christ in how I live, speak, serve, forgive, and respond.

Father, I pray for my home. Let my home become places where love stays hot even when pressure is present. Let my home not be ruled by coldness, silence, anger, pride, sarcasm, resentment, or emotional distance.

Let love return to my home. Let patience return to my home. Let tenderness return to my home. Let forgiveness return to my home. Let prayer return to my home. Let honor return to my home. Let kindness return to my home. Let the presence of Jesus Christ be welcomed in my home.

Lord, teach me how to love my family well. Sometimes the people closest to me receive the least patience from me. Sometimes strangers see my kindness while my own home receive my frustration. Sometimes I speak gently in public and sharply in private.

Father, correct me. Teach me how to love at home first. Teach me how to serve at home first. Teach me how to forgive at home first. Teach me how to be patient at home first. Teach me how to listen at home first. Teach me how to honor You in the place where I am most familiar. Your Word says:

Colossians 3:12-14

"Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;"

"Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another..."

"And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness."

Father, help me put on mercy. Help me put on kindness. Help me put on humility. Help me put on meekness. Help me put on longsuffering. Help me be patient with others. Help me forgive others. Above all, help me put on charity.

Let love be the bond that holds families together. Let love be the bond that helps households heal. Let love be the bond that gives room for repentance. Let love be the bond that creates space for restoration. Let love be the bond that covers without hiding truth.

Lord, I pray for marriages. Keep love hot between husbands and wives. Where love has cooled into routine, revive it. Where affection has been buried under stress, uncover it. Where words have become sharp, soften them. Where disappointment has created distance, heal it. Where unforgiveness has settled, remove it.

Teach husbands and wives to love with patience, humility, truth, forgiveness, and honor. Teach them to listen again. Teach them to pray again. Teach them to serve again. Teach them to speak life again. Teach them to fight for the covenant and not against each other.

Father, I pray for parents, children, siblings, extended family, and blended families. Let love be restored where families have been wounded. Let humility come where pride has ruled. Let forgiveness come where offense has lingered. Let wisdom come where communication has broken down.

Lord, heal generational coldness. Heal generational bitterness. Heal generational silence. Heal generational anger. Heal generational rejection. Heal generational dishonor. Heal generational patterns where love was withheld, weaponized, or never properly shown. Your Word declares:

Malachi 4:6

"And He shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers..."

Father, turn hearts in families. Turn the hearts of parents to children. Turn the hearts of children to parents. Turn the hearts of siblings toward one another. Turn the hearts of families back toward love, honor, repentance, truth, and peace.

Lord, I pray for the lonely. I pray for those who have no one checking on them. I pray for those who feel forgotten. I pray for those whose hearts have grown cold because life has been hard and people have been absent.

Let them encounter the love of God. Let them encounter the care of the Body of Christ. Let them encounter kindness that reminds them they are not invisible. Father, make me sensitive to the lonely. Make me sensitive to widows. Make me sensitive to elders. Make me sensitive to the fatherless. Make me sensitive to single parents. Make me sensitive to caregivers.

Make me sensitive to those who live alone. Make me sensitive to those who serve everyone else but are rarely served. Your Word says:

"But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him..."

"...how dwelleth the love of God in him?"

"My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth."

Father, do not let me love only in word or in tongue. Let me love in deed and in truth. Let compassion move me. Let mercy move me. Let generosity move me. Let prayer move me. Let service move me.

Show me who needs a call. Show me who needs a visit. Show me who needs prayer. Show me who needs encouragement. Show me who needs food. Show me who needs help. Show me who needs a listening ear. Show me who needs to know they are loved.

Lord, I pray for my church. Let the Church be known for holy love. Let the Church not grow cold while wickedness abounds. Let the Church not become so focused on being right that I forget to love, and do not let me become so focused on being accepted that I forget the truth.

Keep the Church full of truth and love. Keep the Church full of holiness and mercy. Keep the Church full of conviction and compassion. Keep the Church full of discernment and humility. Keep the Church full of prayer and service. Keep the Church full of fire and tenderness. Your Word declares:

Ephesians 4:15-16

"But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into Him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:"

"From whom the whole body fitly joined together..."

Father, teach the Church to speak the truth in love. Let me not speak truth without love. Let me not show love without truth. Let me grow up into Christ in all things.

Let the Body of Christ be fitly joined together. Let love heal divisions. Let humility repair relationships. Let forgiveness restore fellowship. Let prayer cover the wounded. Let truth correct what is out of order. Let compassion strengthen what is weak. Let every joint supply.

Lord, I pray for pastors, leaders, ministers, elders, deacons, teachers, intercessors, worship leaders, and servants in the Church. Do not let their love wax cold under the weight of responsibility. Do not let constant need, criticism, disappointment, pressure, or spiritual warfare cause them to lose tenderness.

Keep leaders burning in love for You. Keep leaders burning in love for Your Word. Keep leaders burning in love for Your people. Keep leaders burning in love for the lost. Keep leaders burning in humility. Keep leaders burning in prayer. Keep leaders burning without burning out.

Father, I pray for those who have been wounded by the Church. I pray for those who still love Jesus but are carrying pain from leaders, congregations, betrayal, rejection, misuse, hypocrisy, or spiritual disappointment.

Lord, heal them. Do not let church hurt become hatred. Do not let disappointment become distance from You. Do not let pain become permanent coldness. Do not let wounds make them reject the Body of Christ completely. Meet them with truth. Meet them with healing. Meet them with safe fellowship. Meet them with wise counsel. Meet them with the love of Christ.

Your Word says:

"He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds."

Father, heal the broken in heart. Bind up their wounds. Heal wounds from family. Heal wounds from church. Heal wounds from friendship. Heal wounds from rejection. Heal wounds from betrayal. Heal wounds from abandonment. Heal wounds from words that cut deeply.

Bind up every wound that has tried to make love grow cold.

Lord, I pray for my community. Let Your people carry hot love into cold places. Let Your people carry light into dark places. Let Your people carry compassion into hard places. Let Your people carry truth into confused places.

Let my community encounter the love of Jesus Christ through me. Let neighborhoods see love. Let schools see love. Let workplaces see love. Let senior centers see love. Let hospitals see love. Let shelters see love. Let families in crisis see love. Let people under pressure see love. Let those who feel hopeless see love. Father, show me how to love my neighbor.

Your Word declares:

Mark 12:30-31

"And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength..."

"And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself."

Lord, teach me to love You with all my heart, soul, mind, and strength. Then teach me to love my neighbor as myself. Let my love for You overflow into how I treat people.

Help me love the neighbor who looks like me and the neighbor who does not. Help me love the neighbor who agrees with me and the neighbor who does not. Help me love the neighbor who is easy and the neighbor who is difficult. Help me love the neighbor who is clean and the neighbor who is broken. Help me love the neighbor who is seen and the neighbor who is overlooked.

Father, give me eyes to see people the way You see them. Not as interruptions. Not as burdens. Not as categories. Not as problems. Not as labels. But as souls. Souls You love. Souls Jesus died for. Souls who need truth. Souls who need mercy. Souls who need deliverance. Souls who need hope. Souls who need prayer. Souls who need the gospel.

Lord Jesus Christ, I pray for the lost. Do not let my love grow cold toward those who do not know You. Do not let me become so offended by sin that I stop caring about souls. Do not let me become so disgusted by wickedness that I forget I was once lost too.

Your Word says:

Romans 5:8

"But God commendeth His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

Father, remind me that Christ died for me while I was yet sinners. Let that truth humble me. Let that mercy shape me. Let that love flow through me. Give me love for the lost. Give me burden for souls. Give me compassion for those in darkness. Give me courage to speak truth. Give me wisdom to share the gospel. Give me patience to pray. Give me endurance to keep loving without compromising.

Lord, I pray for enemies, difficult people, persecutors, mockers, accusers, and those who oppose truth. Keep my heart clean. Keep my love hot. Keep my discernment sharp. Keep my boundaries wise. Keep my prayers pure.

Father, teach me how to love enemies without joining their wickedness. Teach me how to pray for those who persecute without pretending evil is good. Teach me how to bless without enabling. Teach me how to forgive without becoming foolish.

Your Word declares:

Luke 6:27-28

"But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,"

"Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you."

Lord, help me obey this Word. This kind of love must come from You. This kind of love must be empowered by the Holy Spirit. This kind of love must be rooted in the cross.

I cannot love enemies in my own strength. I cannot bless those who curse me in my own strength. I cannot pray for those who use me in my own strength. So Father, give me supernatural love. Give me Spirit-filled love. Give me cross-shaped love. Give me holy love. Give me love that refuses bitterness. Give me love that still tells the truth.

Lord, I pray for the wounded and the weary. Let them not encounter cold saints. Let them not encounter religious harshness. Let them not encounter people who quote Scripture but have no compassion. Let them not encounter people who are too busy, too proud, too distracted, or too cold to care.

Let them encounter Jesus in me. Let them encounter patience. Let them encounter wisdom. Let them encounter truth. Let them encounter mercy. Let them encounter prayer. Let them encounter help. Let them encounter hope. Your Word says:

Matthew 25:35-36

"For I was an hungred, and ye gave Me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave Me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took Me in:"

"Naked, and ye clothed Me: I was sick, and ye visited Me: I was in prison, and ye came unto Me."

Father, teach me to see You in the least of these. Teach me to love in practical ways. Teach me to feed, clothe, visit, welcome, serve, pray, and care. Let my love have hands. Let my love have feet. Let my love have sacrifice. Let my love have follow-through.

Lord, I pray for people under financial pressure. Help me love them without judgment. I pray for people battling sickness. Help me love them with compassion. I pray for people in grief. Help me love them with tenderness. I pray for people in prison or bondage. Help me love them with hope and truth. I pray for people who are ashamed. Help me love them toward restoration.

I pray for people who have fallen. Help me love them toward repentance. I pray for people who are confused. Help me love them toward truth. Father, keep my love hot toward the poor, the hurting, the broken, the vulnerable, the overlooked, the rejected, and the forgotten. Do not let wickedness make me selfish. Do not let pressure make me self-centered.

Do not let fear make me stingy. Do not let offense make me unavailable. Do not let weariness make me blind to need. Your Word declares:

1 Peter 4:8-10

"And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins."

"Use hospitality one to another without grudging."

"As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another..."

Father, give me fervent charity. Not cold charity. Not forced charity. Not grudging charity. Fervent charity. Burning love. Active love. Hospitable love. Serving love. Ministering love.

Help every person use the gift they have received to minister to others. Let singers minister in love. Let teachers minister in love. Let intercessors minister in love. Let givers minister in love. Let encouragers minister in love. Let leaders minister in love. Let servants minister in love. Let helpers minister in love. Let every gift be wrapped in love.

Lord Jesus Christ, I ask You to make my church, organization, or community a ministry of hot love, holy truth, practical compassion, and faithful endurance. Let this prayer initiative not only stir voices, but stir hearts to love, serve, forgive, help, encourage, and obey.

Let this prayer journey produce burning love. Burning love for God. Burning love for truth. Burning love for souls. Burning love for families. Burning love for the Body of Christ. Burning love for the wounded. Burning love for the weary. Burning love that endures when wickedness abounds. Father, I declare today: My home will be marked by love.

My family will be covered in love. My church will speak truth in love. My community will encounter the love of Christ. The wounded will be healed by love. The lonely will be seen by love. The poor will be served by love. The lost will be pursued by love. The weary will be strengthened by love. Enemies will be prayed for in love. Neighbors will be served in love.

The Body of Christ will be joined together in love. I will not grow cold. I will not stop caring. I will not let wickedness steal my compassion. I will not let offense steal my obedience. I will not let fear steal my mercy. I will not let darkness put out the fire of holy love. Lord Jesus Christ, keep my love hot when wickedness abounds. In the mighty Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I pray.

Amen.

Father God, I have prayed for You to keep my love hot when wickedness abounds. I have prayed for You to search my heart, heal offense, remove bitterness, restore tenderness, and keep love burning in the hidden places. I have prayed for holy love to move through my home, my family, my church, my community, my neighbors, my enemies, the lost, the wounded, and the weary.

Now, Father, I ask You to seal this fourth day of prayer with holy fire, enduring love, clean hearts, strong truth, pure compassion, and steadfast obedience. Lord Jesus Christ, do not let this prayer fall to the ground. Do not let these words pass over me without changing me. Do not let me hear about love and remain cold. Do not let me pray about forgiveness and remain offended.

Do not let me speak about compassion and remain unmoved. Do not let me confess truth while my heart remain hard. Let this Word go deep. Let this prayer go deep. Let this searching go deep. Let this healing go deep. Let this fire go deep. Your Word declares:

1 Peter 1:22

"Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren..."

"...see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:"

Father, purify my soul in obeying the truth through the Spirit. Give me unfeigned love. Not fake love. Not surface love. Not convenient love. Not performative love. Give me pure-hearted, fervent love.

Love that has been purified by truth. Love that has been strengthened by obedience. Love that has been healed by mercy. Love that has been cleansed by repentance. Love that has been set on fire by the Holy Spirit.

Lord Jesus Christ, let my love be fervent. Let it be burning. Let it be alive. Let it be steady. Let it be holy. Let it be truthful. Let it be merciful. Let it be enduring.

Father, I ask You to seal my heart against coldness. Seal my heart against bitterness. Seal my heart against offense. Seal my heart against hatred. Seal my heart against numbness. Seal my heart against spiritual exhaustion. Seal my heart against compassion fatigue. Seal my heart against loveless religion. Seal my heart against truth without tenderness.

Seal my heart against love without obedience. Your Word says:

2 Timothy 1:6

"Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee..."

Father, stir up the gift of God in me. Stir up holy love. Stir up prayer. Stir up compassion. Stir up forgiveness. Stir up mercy. Stir up courage. Stir up endurance. Stir up service. Stir up obedience. Stir up the fire You placed in me.

Where the fire has gotten low, stir it again. Where love has gotten tired, stir it again. Where compassion has gotten buried, stir it again. Where prayer has gotten weak, stir it again. Where forgiveness has gotten difficult, stir it again. Where obedience has gotten costly, stir it again. Lord, fan the flame. Breathe on the embers. Restore the altar.

Rekindle the love. Revive the heart. Renew the mind. Strengthen the spirit. Father, I ask You to keep the altar of my heart burning. Your Word declares:

Leviticus 6:13

"The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out."

Lord, let the fire never go out. Let love never go out. Let prayer never go out. Let worship never go out. Let compassion never go out. Let truth never go out. Let obedience never go out. Let mercy never go out. Let holy fire never go out.

Father, in a world where wickedness abounds, let the altar still burn. In a world where many hearts grow cold, let my heart still burn. In a world where people are offended, divided, angry, afraid, and deceived, let the fire of God still burn in me.

Burn away bitterness. Burn away pride. Burn away hypocrisy. Burn away unforgiveness. Burn away selfishness. Burn away indifference. Burn away hidden coldness. Burn away everything that resists the love of Christ.

Lord Jesus Christ, I ask You to keep me abiding in You. I know I cannot keep my love hot apart from You. I cannot endure in my own strength. I cannot forgive in my own power. I cannot love enemies in my own flesh. I cannot stay tender in wicked times without abiding in You.

Your Word says:

John 15:5

"I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit..."

"...for without Me ye can do nothing."

Lord Jesus Christ, keep me abiding. Keep me connected to You. Keep me drawing life from You. Keep me drawing love from You. Keep me drawing patience from You. Keep me drawing wisdom from You. Keep me drawing strength from You. Keep me drawing mercy from You. Without You, I can do nothing. Without You, my love runs dry. Without You, my compassion weakens.

Without You, my forgiveness fails. Without You, my service becomes performance. Without You, my truth becomes harsh. Without You, my endurance collapses. So keep me in You. Keep me close. Keep me surrendered. Keep me obedient. Keep me humble. Keep me filled with the Holy Spirit.

Father, I pray for endurance. Your Word says that because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold, but he that shall endure unto the end shall be saved.

So today, I ask for enduring love. Love that endures pressure. Love that endures offense. Love that endures delay. Love that endures disappointment. Love that endures misunderstanding. Love that endures persecution. Love that endures evil without becoming evil. Love that endures wickedness without becoming cold. Love that endures truth without compromise.

Love that endures to the end. Your Word declares:

Hebrews 10:36

"For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise."

Father, give me patience. Give me endurance. Give me steadfastness. Help me continue after I have done Your will. Help me not quit loving. Help me not quit forgiving. Help me not quit praying. Help me not quit serving. Help me not quit believing. Help me not quit obeying.

When love is costly, help me endure. When mercy is misunderstood, help me endure. When truth is resisted, help me endure. When people are difficult, help me endure. When the world is dark, help me endure. When wickedness is loud, help me endure. When my heart feel tired, help me endure.

Lord Jesus Christ, seal me in first love. Bring me back again and again to the place where my heart burns for You. Let me not be satisfied with religious motion, spiritual language, ministry activity, or outward service if my heart is drifting from love.

Your Word declares:

Mark 12:30

"And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength..."

Father, let me love You with all. All my heart. All my soul. All my mind. All my strength. Not leftover love. Not divided love. Not distracted love. Not cold love. Not convenient love. All my love.

Lord Jesus Christ, be first again. Be central again. Be everything again. Be my desire, my treasure, my joy, my peace, my truth, my salvation, my shepherd, my refuge, my righteousness, and my Lord.

Let love for You reorder every other love. Let love for You purify every other love. Let love for You strengthen every other love. Let love for You correct every other love. Let love for You keep me from idolatry, compromise, fear, pride, and coldness.

Father, I ask You to seal my home in love. Let every person connected to this prayer journey carry love back into their homes. Let every household be touched by the warmth of Christ. Let hard conversations be covered in grace. Let apologies be released. Let forgiveness move. Let humility rise. Let kindness return. Let prayer be restored.

Seal marriages in love. Seal families in love. Seal children in love. Seal elders in love. Seal caregivers in love. Seal lonely hearts in love. Seal wounded homes in love. Seal divided families in love. Your Word says:

"Let all your things be done with charity."

Father, let all my things be done with charity. Let my speaking be done with charity. Let my serving be done with charity. Let my correcting be done with charity. Let my leading be done with charity. Let my giving be done with charity. Let my praying be done with charity. Let my posting, texting, calling, teaching, helping, and responding be done with charity.

Let love govern all my things.

Lord, seal the Church in love. Let the Body of Christ not be cold, divided, suspicious, proud, performative, cruel, or indifferent. Let the Church be holy and loving, truthful and tender, discerning and humble, courageous and compassionate.

Let churches become places where love burns hot and truth stands strong. Let pulpits burn with love. Let prayer rooms burn with love. Let worship burn with love. Let teaching burn with love. Let fellowship burn with love. Let service burn with love. Let correction burn with love. Let outreach burn with love. Father, raise up believers who are known by love.

Not known only by opinions. Not known only by arguments. Not known only by outrage. Not known only by knowledge. Not known only by platforms. Not known only by gifts. Let me be known by love. Your Word declares:

"We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren..."

Father, let love be evidence of life in me. Let love be evidence that I belong to You. Let love be evidence that I have passed from death unto life. Let love for the brethren remain hot, holy, humble, and sincere.

Lord, seal my witness to the lost. Let me not become cold toward sinners. Let me not become cruel toward the broken. Let me not become careless toward the confused. Let me not become proud toward those still bound. Let me not forget that I am saved by grace.

Give me gospel love. Give me evangelistic love. Give me intercessory love. Give me patient love. Give me truthful love. Give me mercy-filled love.

Father, let my love carry the gospel with power. Let people see Jesus in my compassion, my conviction, my forgiveness, my service, my humility, and my endurance.

Lord, I pray again for those who are hard to love. I pray for enemies. I pray for accusers. I pray for mockers. I pray for those who oppose truth. I pray for those who have wounded me. I pray for those who are difficult, angry, proud, deceived, or bound.

Keep my heart clean. Keep my prayers pure. Keep my boundaries wise. Keep my love holy. Keep my truth clear. Keep my motives surrendered. Father, let me not be overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. Your Word declares:

"Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

Lord, do not let evil overcome me. Do not let wickedness change me into something You did not call me to be. Do not let darkness make me dark. Do not let cruelty make me cruel. Do not let hatred make me hateful. Do not let deception make me bitter. Do not let offense make me cold.

Teach me to overcome evil with good. Good prayers. Good works. Good words. Good mercy. Good truth. Good courage. Good forgiveness. Good obedience. Good love.

Father, seal my church, organization, or community in this fire. Let this ministry be known for holy love, truth, prayer, compassion, endurance, wellness, restoration, and Kingdom service. Let this prayer journey continue to carry the fire of Jesus Christ into homes, families, churches, communities, and hearts.

Do not let this be an event only. Let it be a turning. Let it be a cleansing. Let it be a reviving. Let it be a healing. Let it be a strengthening. Let it be a fire that continues after the ten days are complete.

Lord Jesus Christ, I ask You to cover the remaining days of this prayer journey. Let Day One's truth keep standing. Let Day Two's covering and peace keep resting. Let Day Three's hearing and wise speech keep guiding. Let Day Four's holy love keep burning.

Let the days ahead build with power. Let the prayers ahead go deeper. Let the Word ahead come alive. Let the people ahead be strengthened. Let the Body ahead be edified. Let Jesus Christ be glorified.

Father, today I seal every heart that has been searched. Seal every wound that has been touched. Seal every place where bitterness has been uprooted. Seal every place where love has been restored. Seal every place where compassion has been awakened. Seal every place where forgiveness has begun.

Do not let the enemy steal the seed. Do not let offense return. Do not let coldness creep back in. Do not let wickedness put out the fire. Do not let disappointment close the heart again. Do not let weariness bury compassion again. Do not let pride interrupt repentance. Do not let fear interrupt love. Your Word declares:

"And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ."

Lord, direct my heart into the love of God. Direct me again and again. Direct me when I am tired. Direct me when I am hurt. Direct me when I am tested. Direct me when wickedness abounds. Direct me when people are difficult. Direct me when pressure is high. Direct me into the love of God and into the patient waiting for Christ.

Father, I declare today: My love will not wax cold. My heart will not harden. My compassion will not be buried. My forgiveness will not be blocked. My mercy will not be stolen. My truth will not become cruelty. My love will not become compromise. My boundaries will not become bitterness. My discernment will not become suspicion. My service will not become performance.

My fire will not go out. My home will burn with love. My church will burn with love. My community will encounter love. The wounded will be healed by love. The weary will be strengthened by love. The lost will be pursued by love. Enemies will be prayed for in love. The Body of Christ will be edified in love. The Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified through love.

I will abide in Christ. I will continue in His love. I will keep myself in the love of God. I will overcome evil with good. I will endure unto the end.

Lord Jesus Christ, thank You for Day Four. Thank You for warning me before coldness takes over. Thank You for searching me before bitterness destroys me. Thank You for healing what wickedness tried to freeze. Thank You for restoring first love. Thank You for teaching me that truth and love belong together. Thank You for giving me holy fire that does not have to go out.

Seal this prayer in every heart. Seal this love in every home. Seal this fire in every family. Seal this compassion in every servant. Seal this truth in every church. Seal this mercy in every community. Seal this endurance in every believer.

Now seal this day in the mighty, holy, loving, truthful, fiery, merciful, and matchless Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. Amen. And Amen.
